

Bill Cooper
Chief of Police (ret)
425-232-1025
bipd1@comcast.net

Available today: Bill Cooper's presentation is based on his book
Suicide Terror.

TESTIMONIALS

"Very, very knowledgeable presenter and very impressive. Provided an excellent knowledge base to motivate people to become proactive in their communities to develop and implement response strategies. Bill was a wealth of information. Thank you for having him speak."

"Great presentation. Extremely valuable. Outstanding."

"Great speaker. One of the best presentations."

"It's about time that a presentation focuses on the biggest threat. As real and primal a concern....we need this emphasis on what is stalking us as a civilization."

"Extremely timely info – well presented. Obviously a topic that needed more time but well presented in the time allotted."

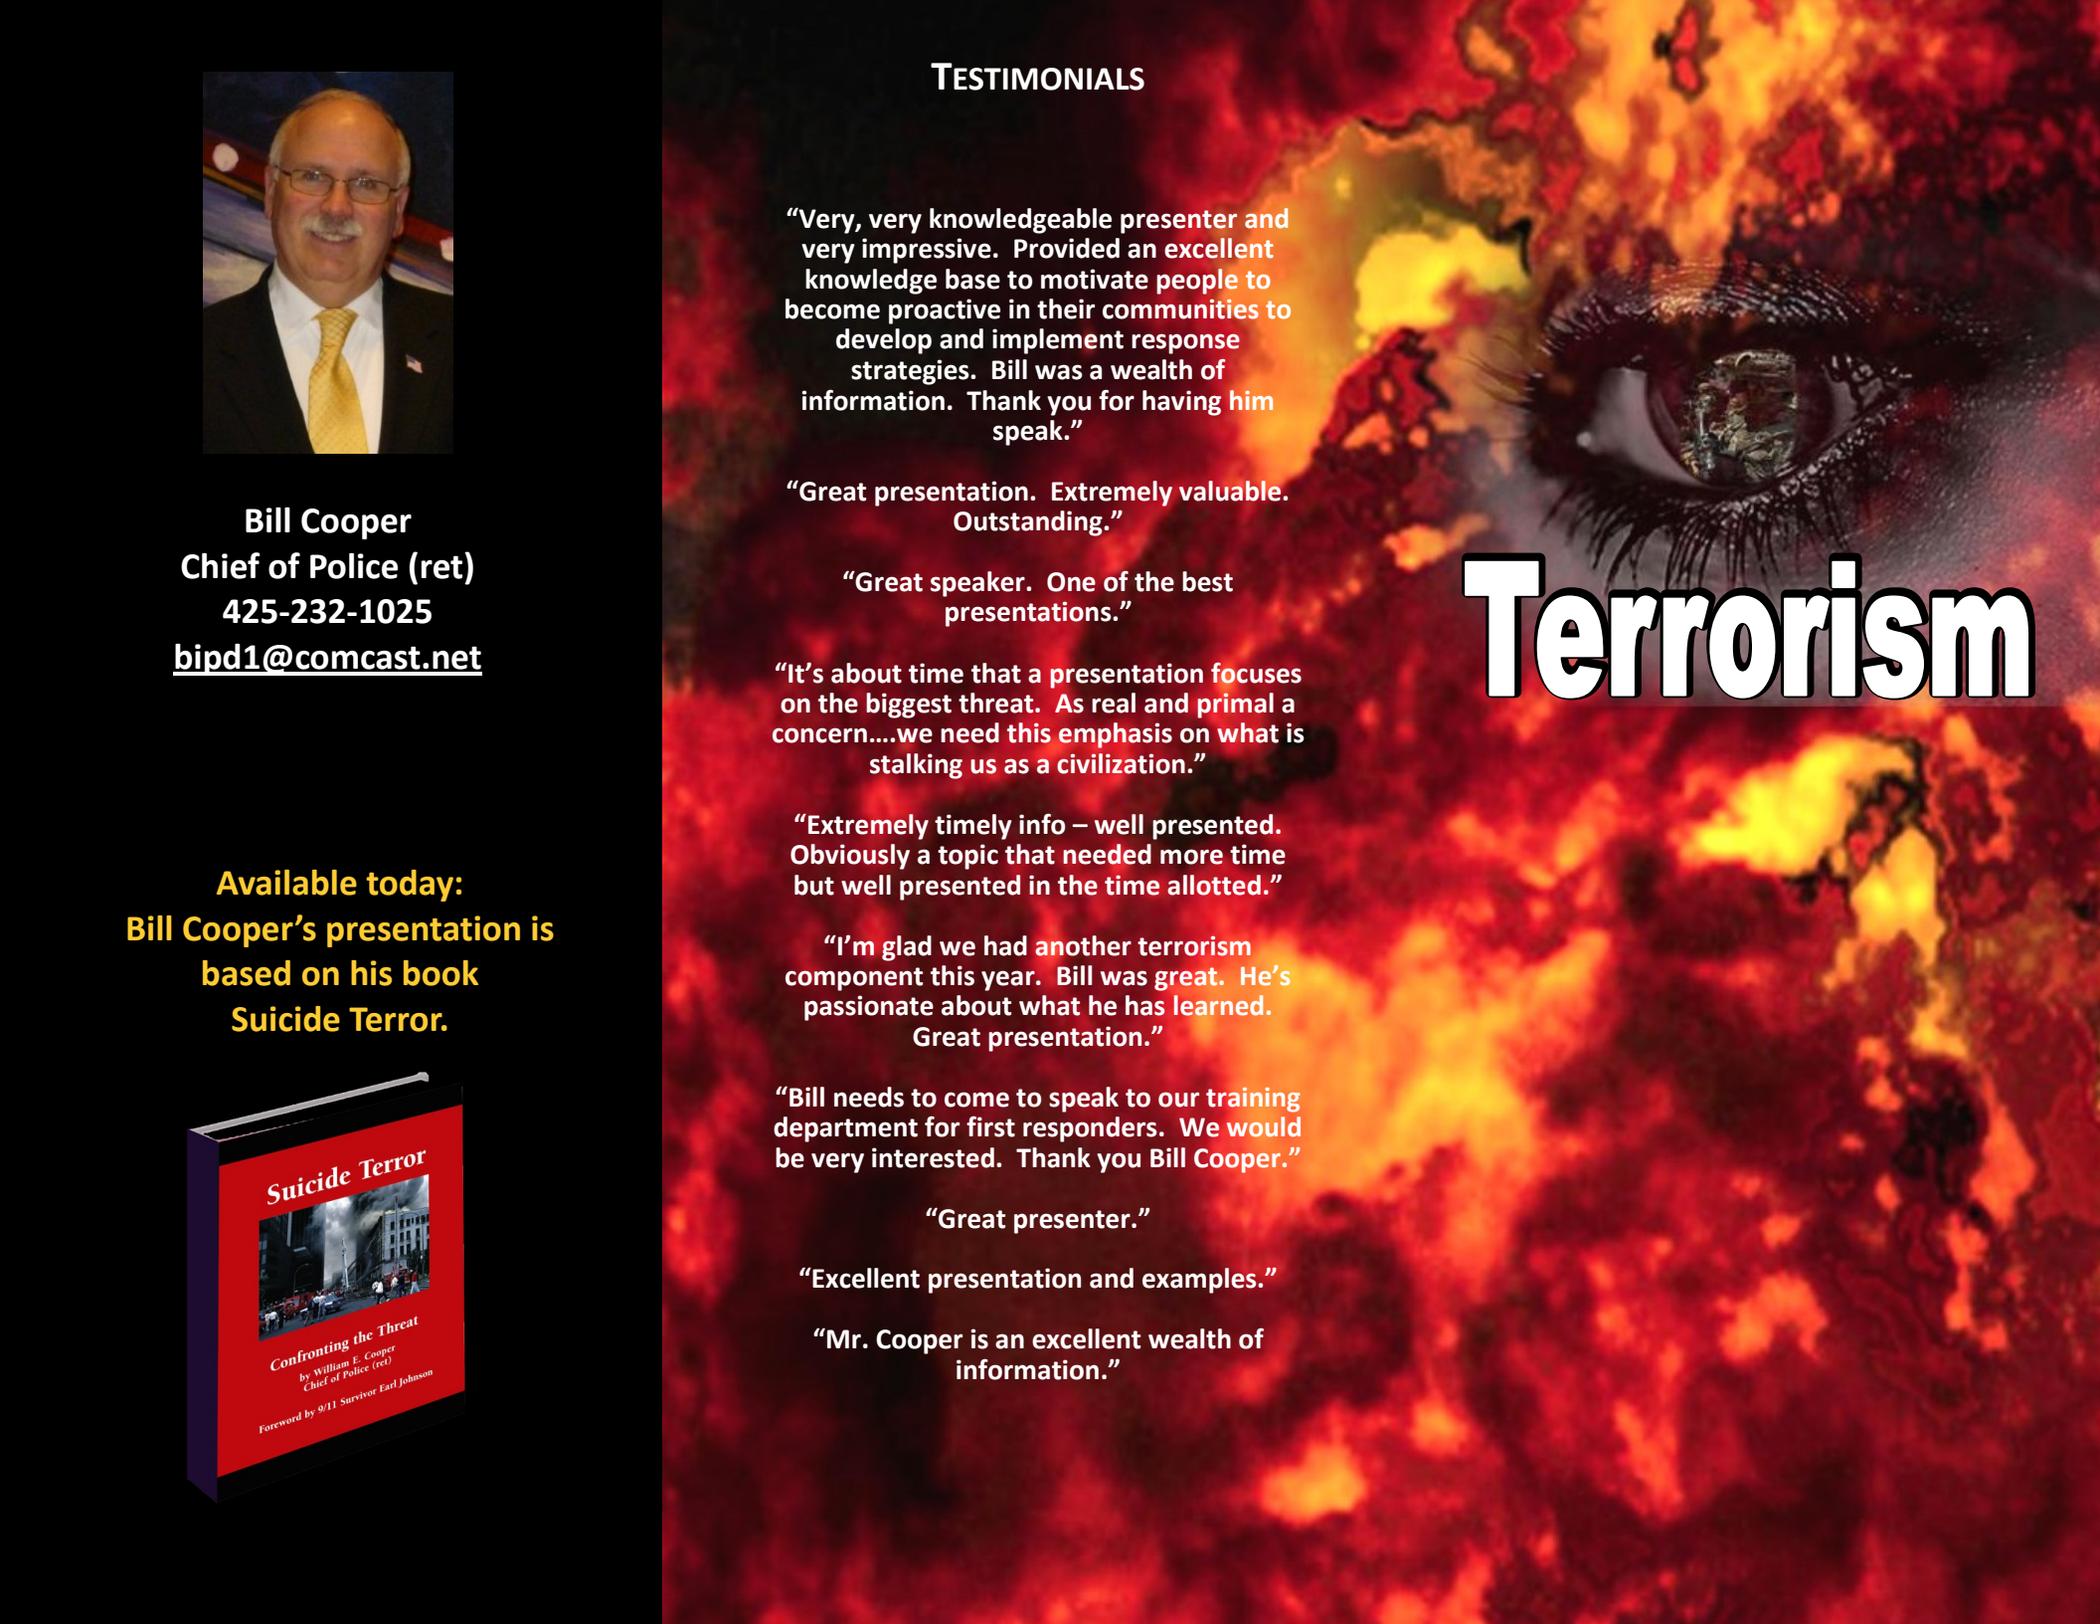

"I'm glad we had another terrorism component this year. Bill was great. He's passionate about what he has learned. Great presentation."

"Bill needs to come to speak to our training department for first responders. We would be very interested. Thank you Bill Cooper."

"Great presenter."

"Excellent presentation and examples."

"Mr. Cooper is an excellent wealth of information."

Terrorism

Terrorist Attack

RESPONSE FOR FIRST RESPONDERS

- I. Brief History of Terrorism
 - a. 610 AD – End of World War I
 - b. 1920's – 2000
 - c. 2000 – Present
- II. Philosophies of Radical Islam
- III. Intent of Radical Islam
- IV. Major Attacks 1979 – Present
- V. Birth of al Qaeda
- VI. Attack Target Selection
- VII. Attack Planning
- VIII. Attack Strategies and Tactics
- IX. Learning From Terror Attacks
- X. Intelligence sources
- XI. 2008 Mumbai Terror Attack – The Paradigm Changes
- XII. Interdicted attacks in the US
 - a. Cases presented
 - b. Potential catastrophic effects
- XIII. What can we expect in the near term?
 - a. How will it affect law enforcement?
 - b. Response strategies and tactics
 - c. Policy implications
 - d. Principle of acceptable losses
- XIV. Tabletop Exercise
 - a. Real-time
 - b. Area specific

Chief Bill Cooper

Bill Cooper is a 30-year veteran police officer, who served in many capacities during his career and retired as Chief of Police. He authored, implemented, and trained city and private sector staff in emergency operations plans and strategies.

Following the September 11, 2001 terror attacks Chief Cooper was responsible for developing specific terrorism response plans.

After his retirement Chief Cooper worked for Fortune 200 companies managing Security Operations. His various experiences include the investigation of international terrorism cases, and served on the President's National Security Telecommunications Advisory Team. Chief Cooper then became a certified Master Anti-Terrorism Specialist.

Chief Cooper is a well known speaker and has written and delivered multiple terrorism-related training courses and seminars around the country, both for first responders and the general public. He is the author of five books, including:

- Suicide Terror: Confronting the Threat
- First Responders Guide to Terrorist Attacks

Chief Cooper holds an MBA and second Masters Degree in Public Administration and a graduate of:

- The FBI National Academy
- Washington State Law Enforcement Executive Command College.

He has completed the FEMA Incident Command System courses, and applied the knowledge in both the public sector and corporate environs. He is also a Motorola-trained Six Sigma Black Belt, and the author of the book Leading Beyond Tradition, which describes a unique and successful management model developed by Chief Cooper, who teaches it to public and private sector organizations.

